

~ Pax Tip ~

A face shield in conjunction with safety glasses should be required safety equipment when students are wood turning, as chips tend to fly in any direction. A clear, impact resistant full-face shield will keep these flying chips and debris out of their face, helping to avoid distraction when turning.